

Give a Little

Thursday, January 29, 2009

By Indy Staff

- Hospice of Santa Barbara is beginning to register much-needed volunteers for its I Have a Friend program, a mentorship undertaking for adults who suffered the loss of a parent or sibling as a child. Volunteers are trained and matched with children who have recently suffered a similar loss, providing emotional support and understanding to young people experiencing intense grief. Call 563-8820 for more info.