Nonprofit group seeks items for terminally ill

February 4, 2009 7:45 AM

SANTA BARBARA Hospice of Santa Barbara, a nonprofit organization serving terminally ill patients and their families, put out a call for donations of toys, quilts and airline miles as part of its annual "Wish List."

The group is looking for donations to benefit terminally ill patients and their families, victims of loss and volunteers. Items sought include restaurant gift cards for families, stuffed animals, quilts, blankets and even airline miles to bring families together.

"In these economic times, any donations to our Wish List will be especially appreciated," said Steve Jacobsen, the organization's executive director.

Donations can be brought to the organization's headquarters at 2050 Alameda Padre Serra, Suite 100. The full list of items has been made available at <http://hospiceofsantabarbara.org/community.php>.
